MAINTENANCE WORKER, RANGE A

Under close to general supervision within a framework of standard policies and procedures, employees in this entry-level job classification perform a wide variety of skilled maintenance, repair and construction work required to maintain District levees and flood control facilities; individually and as a member of a team, patrol the District's levees and flood control facilities to identify maintenance and repair needs and potential health and safety hazards; safely operate a variety of hand-held manual and power-driven tools and equipment; safely drive and operate a variety of trucks and equipment; clean and maintain assigned vehicles, equipment and tools; load, transport and unload materials and equipment to and from work sites; and perform other work as assigned or required from time to time. Maintenance Worker, Range A employees must possess and maintain the appropriate California Driver's license required for the equipment they are assigned to operate. As with all District employment, the Maintenance Worker, Range A position is at-will.